	Lead poisoning in children is a major health concern. Both low and high doses of paint can have serious effects. Children exposed to high doses of lead often suffer permanent nerve damage, mental retardation, blindness, and even death. Low doses of lead can to mild mental retardation, short attention span, distractibility, poor academic performance, and behavioral problems. This is not a new concern. As early as 1904, lead poisoning in children was linked to lead-based paint. Microscopic lead particles from paint are absorbed into the bloodstream when children ingest flakes of chipped paint, plaster, or paint dust from sanding. Lead can also enter the body through household dust, nail biting, thumb sucking, or chewing on toys and other objects painted with lead-based paint. Although American paint companies today must comply with strict regulations regarding the amount of lead used in their paint, this source of lead poisoning is still the most common and most dangerous. Children living in older, dilapidated houses are particularly at risk. 59- What is the main topic of the passage? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Problems with household paint 2) Major health concerns for children 3) Lead poisoning in children 4) Lead paint in older homes 60- The phrase " exposed to" could best be replaced by which of the following? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Familiar with 2) In contact with 3) Displaying 4) Conducting 61- As used in the first paragraph, which of the following is closest in meaning to the word "suffer"? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Experience 2) Boost 3) Feel pain from 4) dedicate 62- Which of the following does the passage infer? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Paint companies can no longer use lead in their paint 2) Paint companies aren't required to limit the amount of lead used in their paint 3) Paint companies must limit the amount of lead used in their paint 4) Paint companies have always followed restrictions regarding the amount of lead used in their paint 63- Where is the best place in the passage to add the following sentence? " older, run-down houses commonly have chipped, flaking paint, and more likely to have been painted with lead- based paint." <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) In line 1 after the words "health concerns" 2) In line 4 after the word "problems" 3) In line 5 after the words " new concern" 4) in line 11 after the word "risk" 64- According to the passage, what is the most common source of lead poisoning in children? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Household dust 2) Lead-based paint 3) Painted toys 4) Dilapidated houses 65- What does the author imply in the first sentence of the passage? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Lead-based paint chips off more easily than newer paint. 2) Poor people did not comply with the regulations. 3) Old homes were painted with lead-based paint. 4) Old homes need to be rebuilt in order to be safe for children 66- The phrase " particularly" could best be replaced by which of the following? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) effectively 2) especially 3) differently 4) gradually
